BACHELOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

TOURISM AND HOSPITALITY ESSENTIALS

Tourism and hospitality are rapidly growing industries offering career paths in areas such as tourism development, event and festival organisation, and hotel / resort management.

In this specialisation, you'll gain the knowledge and skills you will need to become an effective manager in the tourism and hospitality sectors across the globe. As part of your course work, you will identify key theoretical principles and practical underpinnings of tourism and hospitality management, and apply these in a practical approach to industry and business.

You will learn about contemporary issues in international tourism, such as event and tourism sustainability; the impact of tourism and events on the local and global economy; destination management; hospitality management; and marketing.

As part of Curtin's industry-embedded curriculum, you will have the opportunity to work on real life cases and projects that will teach you to critically examine tourism and hospitality management issues, trends, and situations, and formulate creative and innovative ideas to address the challenges faced by the industry.

Dual Specialisation Options

You also have the opportunity to do a dual specialisation in this program. You can combine the Tourism and Hospitality specialisation with any one of the other BBA specialisations in Digital Marketing, Human Resource Management, or Small Business Start Ups. Graduating with two specialisations can enhance your skills, employability and your profession by widening your career prospects.
