Fair Usage Policy

---

This Fair Usage Policy is designed to ensure that all students at Curtin University Dubai use university facilities responsibly and maintain a respectful and safe environment. This policy outlines the expectations for the use of university property, responsibility for any damages, and the potential disciplinary proceedings that may be initiated.

This policy applies to all students using Curtin University Dubai facilities, including, but not limited to, classrooms, laboratories, the library, study rooms, and sports facilities.

USAGE GUIDELINES

1. All users are expected to treat university property with respect. Facilities should be used in a manner that does not disrupt others or hinder the educational experience.
2. Users should ensure that all facilities are left in a clean and orderly condition. Any equipment or resources should be returned to their designated locations after use.
3. Users must report any damage or malfunctions of university property to the appropriate staff immediately. Failure to report damages may result in disciplinary action.
4. The following activities are strictly prohibited:
  - a. Vandalism or intentional destruction of university property.
  - b. Unauthorized removal or use of university property.
  - c. Engaging in behaviour that endangers the safety of others or oneself.
5. In the event of damage to university property, the Operations team will take the following actions:
  - a. Conduct an assessment to determine the extent and cause of the damage.
  - b. The university, at its sole discretion, will determine whether to repair or replace the property, whichever is deemed appropriate.
  - c. The associated costs of repair or replacement will be charged to the account of the individual who caused the damage.
  - d. The Disciplinary Committee at Curtin University Dubai reserves the right to initiate disciplinary proceedings at its discretion.
6. The university is not responsible for personal belongings left unattended on campus.
7. Students are expected to adhere to the Curtin Dubai Student Code of Conduct.
